

CASA Flight Instructor Rating (GIII Training Endorsement)

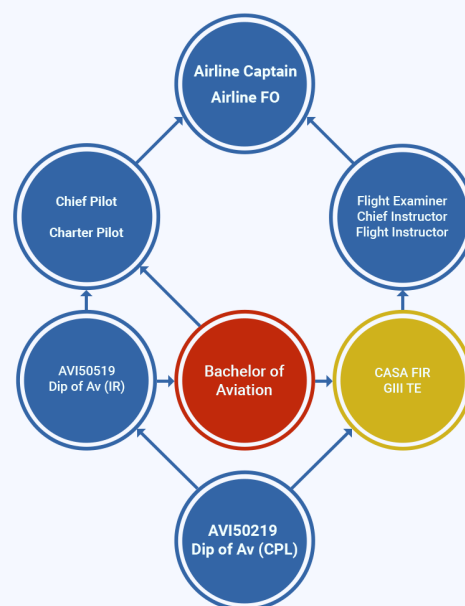

Overview

The signature course of Flylink Aviation College, our Flight Instructor Rating (GIII Training Endorsement) course is our "youth academy" when it comes to searching for our next Flight Instructor! This course targets students who are passionate about transferring their aviation passion, knowledge and skills to the next generations of pilots. In addition to equipping you with professional teaching, delivering, assessing and communicating skills, this course will also further enhance both your technical and non-technical skills as a pilot. The CASA Flight Instructor Rating (GIII Training Endorsement) is the foundation qualification of a Flight Instructor's career and may lead to highly regarded professional roles such as Flight Instructor Rating Trainer, Chief Flying Instructor and/or Flight Examiner.

Why this course?

- ✓ Stepping stone for those pursuing a long term career as a professional pilot in a forever changing world
